ATTACHMENT

Within the last six months, the above-named Employer, through its officers, agents and representatives, has interfered with, restrained and coerced, and is interfering with, restraining and coercing employees of Leggett and Platt in the exercise of their rights guaranteed in Section 7 of the Act.

Since on or about January 12, 2017 and at all times thereafter, the Employer, by its officers, agents, and representatives, has refused to bargain in good faith with the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, AFL-CIO, a labor organization chosen by a majority of its employees in an appropriate unit, for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other terms and conditions of employment.

Specifically, the company has sent a letter to employees stating they will no longer recognize the IAMAW as the employee's representative, they continue in the letter to Direct Deal with employees making offers to improve benefits and working condition if the employees do not support the Union.
